HIMNO ITI PANAGSAGANA “When I Survey the Wondrous Cross”

HFJ 160

When I survey the wondrous cross on which the Prince of glory died, my richest gain I count but loss and pour contempt on all my pride.

Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast, save in the death of Christ my God;
all the vain things that charm me most, I sacrifice them to his blood.

See from His head, His hands, His feet, Sorrow and love flow mingled down! Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Were the whole realm of nature mine, That were a offering far too small; Love so amazing, so divine, Demands my soul, my life, my all.

HIMNO A PAGDAYAW: “Amazing Grace”

Amazing Grace, How sweet the sound, That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost, but now am found, T'was blind but now I see

T'was Grace that taught my heart to fear, And Grace, my fears relieved
How precious did that grace appear, The hour I first believed

Through many dangers, toils and snares, We have already come.
T'was grace that brought us safe thus far, And grace will lead us home,

PANANGIBABAET (Maikanta-Tune: God Grace and God of Glory)

For the healing of the nations, Lord, we pray with one accord,
For a just and equal sharing of the things that earth affords.
To a life of love in action help us rise and pledge our word (2X).

Lead us forward into freedom, from despair your world release,
That, redeemed from war and hatred, all may come and go in peace.
Show us how through care and goodness
Fear will die and hope increase (2X).

All that kills abundant living, let it from the earth be banned:
Pride of status, race or schooling, dogmas that obscure your plan.
In our common quest for justice may we hallow brief life's span (2X).

You, Creator God, have written your great name on humankind;
For our growing in your likeness bring the life of Christ to mind;
That by our response and service earth its destiny may find (2X).

service has just begun.”

Tenebrae (/ˈtɛnəbreɪ, -brɪ/—Latin for “darkness”) is a religious service of Western Christianity held during the three days preceding Easter, and characterized by gradual extinguishing of candles, and by a “strepitus” or “loud noise” taking place in total darkness near the end of the service

Maundy Thursday. The word “Maundy” comes to us as an Anglo-French word derived from the Latin “mandatum,” which means “commandment.” It refers to when Jesus, in the Upper Room during the Last Super, said to the disciples: “A new commandment I give you that you love one another; even as I have loved you that you also love one another.”
(John 13:34, Revised Standard Version).
