HIMNO ITI PANNAKAKARIT "A COMMON LOVE"

Refrain: A Common Love For Each Other, A Common Gift To The Savior,
A Common Bond Holding Us To The Lord; A Common Strength When We're Weary
A Common Hope For Tomorrow, A common joy in the truth of God's word.

In God's family, we can meet each one's need, We can light each one's path,
We can bear each one's grief. As God's children we can comfort each care,
We can build each one's faith, We can work, we can share.

On God's family all the love that we show, All the help that we give
All the life we bestow. As God's children, there are offerings we make
Not expecting return, Just a gift for His sake.

As member of the Church, I will strive my best to:

- To proclaim the Gospel and bear personal witness in both word and service in the context of one's immediate community, the nation and the rest of humanity;
- To lead a peaceable and godly life worthy of one's Christian calling; and to endeavor to be a follower of Jesus Christ;
- To be diligent in prayer, the faithful practice of family worship and Bible study, and attendance at services of public worship of the Church;

Sub-Theme: “.they all suffer together”

Biblical Text: 1 Corinthians 12:12-31

One Body with Many Members

¹² For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. ¹³ For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

¹⁴ Indeed, the body does not consist of one member but of many. ¹⁵ If the foot would say, “Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body,” that would not make it any less a part of the body. ¹⁶ And if the ear would say, “Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body,” that would not make it any less a part of the body. ¹⁷ If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? ¹⁸ But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. ¹⁹ If all were a single member, where would the body be? ²⁰ As it is, there are many members, yet one body. ²¹ The eye cannot say to the hand, “I have no need of you,” nor again the head to the feet, “I have no need of you.” ²² On the contrary, the members of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, ²³ and those members of the body that we think less honorable we clothe with greater honor, and our less respectable members are treated with greater respect; ²⁴ whereas our more respectable members do not need this. But God has so arranged the body, giving the greater honor to the inferior member, ²⁵ that there may be no dissension within the body, but the members may have the same care for one another. ²⁶ If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it.

²⁷ Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. ²⁸ And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers; then deeds of power, then gifts of healing, forms of assistance, forms of leadership, various kinds of tongues. ²⁹ Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? ³⁰ Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret? ³¹ But strive for the greater gifts. And I will show you a still more excellent way.
